

Mission Statement

RCCI is a not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) service agency in the Redwood and Rancho Vista rural communities as well as areas under the auspices of RCCI funders and partners. Our mission is to empower, promote and facilitate equality, diversity, and inclusion opportunities, which embrace and address the health & wellness, welfare, social, cultural, and recreational needs. We believe in providing educational training and development opportunities that enable community members to build new skills and gain valuable experience. We foster an exchange of ideas that enriches people's lives.

Our Vision

RCCI's vision is to enhance the quality of life and to serve the needs of our community by:

- Providing programs to enrich youths, seniors, and families.
- Providing health & wellness, welfare, social, cultural, and recreational needs, educational training, and development opportunities to residents of all ages, regardless of ethnicity, gender, or economic status, with the intent to connect and empower the community.
- Developing partnerships with other non-profit and community-oriented organizations.
- Providing commendable management of the center and its activities.

Our Goals

Guided by the leadership of a strong Board of Directors, we:

- Keep the center available, accessible, and secure for use by community members.
- Enable a range of health & wellness, welfare, social, cultural, and recreational needs, educational training, and development opportunities to take place at the center while also responding to the needs of the local community.
- Provide access to advice and information for all persons in the community.
- Provide excellent quality services to the clients of the center.
- Consult with the local community to remain current with local issues and, where possible, advocate and support the local community.
- Be financially sustainable.
